

COMPREHENSION TIMES THREE (CX3)

A three day K-12
Summer Literacy
Institute
July 24-26
Denver, Colorado

Stephanie Harvey, Debbie Miller, and Cris Tovani invite you to spend three days learning about comprehension theory and practice K-12. Each presenter will share her current thinking about literacy teaching and learning and how to help students turn information into knowledge.

Steph, author of Strategies that Work, and the Comprehension Tool Kit Series, was a classroom and special education teacher and now does national literacy consulting.

Debbie, author of Reading with Meaning and Teaching with Intention, taught for 30 years in the Denver Public Schools and now works as a staff developer throughout the country.

Cris, author of I Read it But Don't Get it and So What do They Really Know? is a former elementary teacher who currently teaches high school and works as a literacy coach and national staff developer.

Steph, Debbie, and Cris's collaboration began in Denver in the early 90's, at the Public Education and Business Coalition (PEBC) a non-profit designed to support innovation in public schools. They now have written multiple resources between them and continue to promote thoughtful literacy practice
