

Michele Timble, Curriculum Vitae

Experience

Fourth grade teacher, Burley School, 2004-present

Third and Fifth grade teacher, Burley School, 2000-2004

Sixth and Fifth grade teacher Finkl Academy, 1995-2000

Education

National Board Certified Teacher, Middle Childhood Generalist

Masters of Education, Instructional Leadership 1995

Bachelors of Arts, Psychology, University of Iowa, 1992

Professional Experience

- Presenter for Boundless Readers, Nonfiction in the Classroom, Authentic Reading Assessment, Book Clubs in the Intermediate Grades 2005-present
- Facilitator for Rochelle Lee Fund, Teachers As Readers study group
- Presenter, International Reading Conference, 2010. Collaborated with Stephanie Harvey, Harvey Daniels and a group of teachers to present on Inquiry in the classroom
- Guest presenter, Stephanie Harvey and Harvey Daniels, Comprehension and Collaboration Conference. 2009
- Demonstration and mentor teacher for new teachers, Burley School 2008
- Curriculum developer for school literacy, science and social studies curriculum, 2000-present
- Authored authentic assessment plan for school wide implementation 2009-present
- Curriculum lead teacher. Develop, plan and implement school-wide professional development, 2000-present
- Founder and demonstration teacher, Literacy Institute @ Burley. Developed and implemented the week long institute for 25 teachers, focused on comprehension strategies, inquiry learning and collaboration. Demonstrated lessons and facilitated discussions with Stephanie Harvey and Harvey Daniels. 2010-present

Professional Activities

Featured in Heinemann instructional DVD, Inquiry in the Elementary Classroom, 2009

Awardee of the Chicago Public Schools Drive Award 2007

Member of International Reading Association, National Council of the Teachers of English

Recipient of the National Endowment for the Humanities Grant 1999

Chicago Foundation of Education small grant winner, 1995, 1996, 1999

Rochelle Lee Award winner, 1996, 1997, 1999

DePaul University Urban Education Partnership Facilitator 1993 and 1994